The Day in Davenport

Steal Christmas Gifts.—A lady's blue serge suit, which he had purchased as a Christmas gift, his watch and $12 in cash were taken from James T. Michna, 1934 West Sixth street, by a bandit Thursday night. The robbery was perpetrated between Third and Fourth on Pine street. Michna was on his way home, when he was stopped by the gunman, who approached him as he was passing the rear of the Schroeder butcher shop. Shoving the revolver against Michna's body, the bandit demanded that he deliver.

State of the sand promises, Harold J. Harria, 25-year-old ladies' tallor, broke down and wept in district court late Thursday when z jury, after deliberating an hour and 45 minutes, returned a verdict of "not guilty." Harris, on trial for the crime of atealing wearing apparel and triaketz to the value of $400 from a dead girl's room, went on the witness stand and recited one of the most remarkable tales that ever fell from the lips of a defendant in the local courts.

man yesterday morning escaped in New York, coming to this city the case was continued three days to give the defendant an opportunity to pay up. Handleman was employed as a salesman for the Charles Harris company, which manufacturers and sells punch- Laurence Clifford Mason and Maboards, a gambling device popular in cigar stores and candy shops. Harris accused Handleman of failing to turn in collections amounting to $87 and Handleman was arrested Thursday. At the preliminary hearing, yesterday morning, Isom Goldstein, the attorney for Harris, agreed hot to press the charge if the defendant would pay the court coats and make restitution. Handleman will pay.
